Welcome to one of the most charming and lovingly cared-for homes you'll ever step foot in! Nestled at the end of a peaceful cul-de-sac, this Cicero Drive home gives you the best of both worlds - quiet, private living with easy access to Palisade's vibrant shops, parks, and wineries. And the views don't quit. From the patio out front, you'll have front-row seats to the majesty of the Bookcliffs and Mt. Garfield. Morning coffee or evening wine - this is the spot to soak it all in. Inside, natural light pours through an airy, updated living space. The open flow between the living room and kitchen makes entertaining a breeze. A stylish decorative fireplace anchors the space, while the kitchen island is perfect for friends, food, and fun. Granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, a chic backsplash, and modern fixtures elevate the whole look. The primary suite is generous in size, with a walk-in closet and an ensuite bathroom that feels like a retreat. Think brick tile flooring, a sleek walk-in shower, and finishes that hit just the right balance of rustic and modern. Two additional bedrooms offer flexibility for guests, office space, or hobbies, while the full bath carries the same thoughtful design touches. Want to bring the outside in? The cozy sunroom is perfect for curling up with a book or even starting an indoor garden. Out back, a wide-open patio awaits, and the fully landscaped yard
