Welcome to 908 Kaley Street in Fruita. With more than 2600 square feet of space, this spacious home is built for flexible, easy living with high ceilings, an open concept kitchen and comfortable living area. The split floor plan creates plenty of private space while maintaining a central location for gathering together. Not only that, but the large upstairs bonus area is complete with an airy and bright bedroom, walk in closet and bathroom. Currently set up as a private apartment, this upstairs space could be ideal for working, relaxing or guests. What would you do with this extra living space? The three car garage offers plenty of room, and there's an additional RV hookup in the back. The pergola and back patio are the perfect place to relax and enjoy the quiet outdoors. The views are expansive, beautiful and help make 908 Kaley a wonderful place to call home.
