What an amazing opportunity in Loma - where wide-open skies, thoughtful design, and room to really live come together beautifully. This quiet rural retreat sits on 1.58 acres and immediately welcomes you with well-planned landscaping that sets the tone for everything this property has to offer. Step inside and feel the space open up with tall ceilings and bright, living areas that invite both everyday comfort and memorable gatherings. Just off the entry is a highly versatile room - perfect for a home office, formal dining, creative studio, or whatever your lifestyle calls for. The living room steals the show with cathedral ceilings, abundant natural light, and a cozy gas fireplace that ties it all together. The kitchen and dining area flow effortlessly, making entertaining a breeze. You'll love the stainless steel appliance package, including a full refrigerator and freezer setup, plus granite countertops and a pantry that keeps everything organized. The primary suite on the main level is perfectly positioned and offers a spacious four-piece bath with great fixtures and a large walk-in closet - the best place to unwind at the end of the day. Upstairs, you'll find three bedrooms, a full bath, and a large family/entertainment room that offers endless flexibility - movie nights, game room, or a second living space. The laundry room is impressively equipped with two washers, connects
