Discover an exceptional lock-and-leave home or investment opportunity located in The Homestead, this light-filled upper-level condo offers two primary suites and two detached single-car garages-a rare and valuable combination in a condo. Vaulted ceilings and large windows create an open, airy atmosphere, while the welcoming living room features a gas-log fireplace and built-in entertainment shelving. The kitchen includes stainless-steel appliances and durable luxury vinyl plank flooring. Just off the dining area, a covered west-facing deck provides an inviting outdoor retreat, sunset views and additional storage. Central air conditioning and a dedicated laundry room add everyday convenience. Conveniently positioned near shopping, dining, Mesa Mall and essential services, this North Grand Junction condo is ideal as a primary residence, seasonal Colorado retreat or potential rental investment. Enjoy low-maintenance, lock-and-leave living. Amenities + Location have made this a fantastic rental property with steady income and minimal operating expenses. Don't miss out of this one! Pictures are virtually staged.
